

INTRODUCTION FOR SCHOOL REPRESENTATIVE

Welcome to the Box Out Bullying Assembly. Every elementary school in the district is getting to see this presentation. They are here to help us kickoff and sustain PBIS and to make sure we continue to be respectful, responsible, and safe.

This troupe came all the way from New York City. Over 100,000 students a year experience the Box Out Bullying Presentation.

Teachers and parents, please feel free to take pictures. If you like what you see and use social media, be sure to recommend Box Out Bullying! And use hashtag boxoutbullying!

Now students, this is live theater. And in live theater, unlike movies and television, the actors can see and hear you.

If you talk or whisper during the assembly, you disturb not only the other audience members, but also the performers onstage, which makes the show not as much fun. This doesn't mean you have to remain silent. Actors want you to respond with laughter and applause.

So if the performers ask you a question, you can respond. If they need volunteers you can raise your hand and they may call on you. But such inconsiderate behaviors as shouting or whispering can ruin the concentration of the actors and other audience members. We want you to enjoy Box Out Bullying and we rely on you to exercise your common sense and mature judgment. Now...

We have a great show about bullying prevention. It's actually the greatest show on bullying prevention....

...According to these actors.

So please give a warm welcome to Tom and his cousin Jerry!

THANK YOU! AND PLEASE RETURN INTRO WHEN FINISHED
