

BOX OUT PRODUCTIONS, LLC
PO BOX 8032
Lancaster, PA 17604
www.boxoutbullying.com
info@boxoutbullying.com

Professional Development For Parents

This nationally acclaimed workshop for parents is comprehensively designed to make sure that EVERYONE is on the same page. Bullying does not just affect school, but rather, the entire community. Therefore, it takes the entire community to help address and solve the problem of bullying. Parents will understand how to successfully work with their children and faculty members to continue to foster a community that addresses potential problems, empowers bystanders, and creates empathy among students.

Professional Development Outline

- Welcome And Introductions
- Warm-Up: “The Changing Face Of Bullying”
- Introduction And Discussion Of Bullying
- Identifying Bullying Before It Starts:
 - Defining Bullying, Cyber Bullying, Social Aggression And Other Acts Of Misconduct
 - Common Traits Of Students Who Bully, Students Who Are Being Bullied, And Bystanders
- Consequences To Address Bullying
- Same Page Mentality To Stop Bullying:
 - Parent Responsibility / Response To Bullying
- Telling (Reporting) vs. Tattle-Telling (Snitching)
- Lessons And Activities That Teach Empathy
- Activities To Empower Bystanders
- Q & A
- Summary/wrap-up

Materials, Resources and Follow-Up

- PowerPoint Handouts
- Online Student Bullying Survey
- Bullying, Cyber-Bullying And Social Aggression Fact Sheet Handout

www.boxoutbullying.com

info@boxoutbullying.com